1st Off again, off again, From my native land; And
 2^d Far a-way, far a-way, O'er the billowy sea; I
 3^d Nev - er more, nev - er more, May I see thee smile; For

O, my happy heart grows sad, To pledge the parting hand.
 go where distant strangers are, Who'll kind - ly welcome me. But O, too soon yon gallant bark Will bear me many a mile. But Fonder joys than home can give, Nev - er can I find, And the ten-ted fields nor cost - - ly halls, Can make my proud heart gay, For re-col - oft the man - - ly tear shall tell, Though far a - way I roam, That where the friends who greet me here, With tears I leave be - hind.

 lec - tions of my home, Will chase my joys a - way.
 lov - - ing loved ones dwell, There is my hap - - py home.

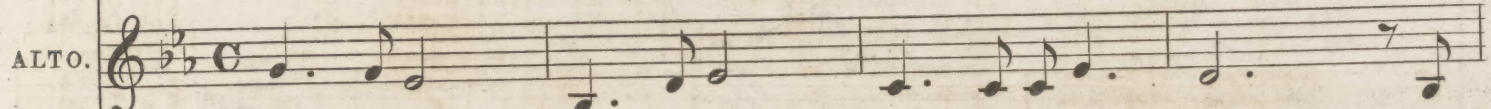

Off again, off again, From my native land; And

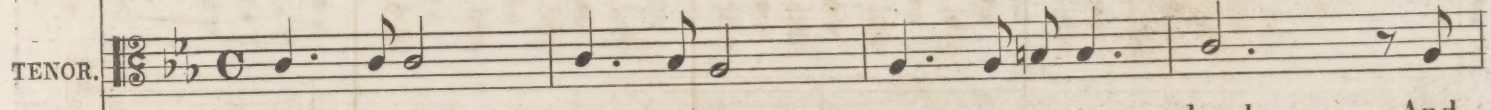

O, my happy heart grows sad, To pledge the parting hand.

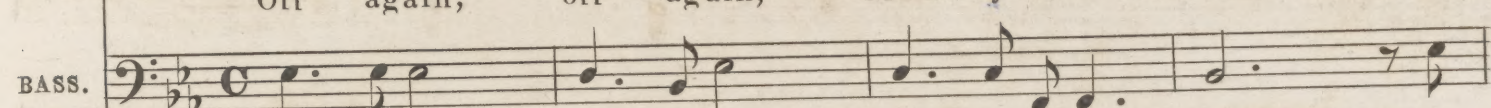

CHORUS ad libitum.

AIR.

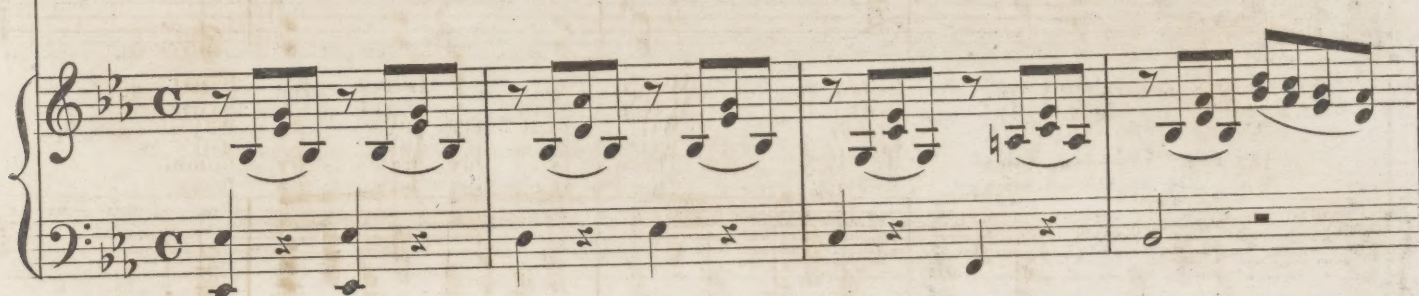

Off again, off again, From my native land; And

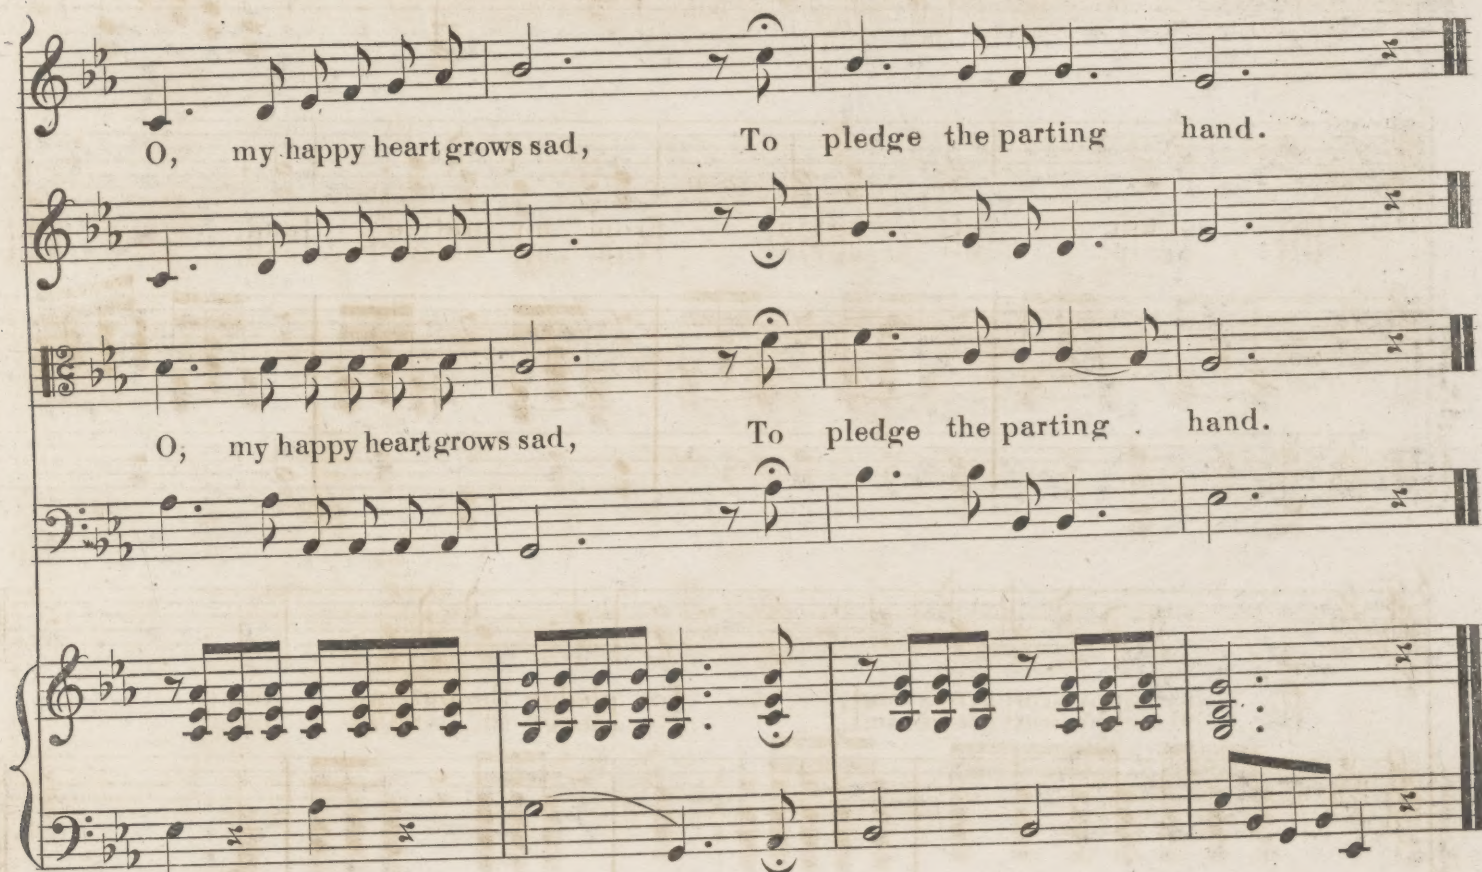

ALTO.

TENOR.

BASS.

Off again, off again, From my native land; And

O, my happy heart grows sad, To pledge the parting hand.

O, my happy heart grows sad, To pledge the parting hand.
